

Carol Busch

Carol has been a teacher of the deaf for 39 years. Fortunately, all of these years have been at KSD. She has had many opportunities to work with families and children. Carol taught children who were deaf or hard of hearing with additional disabilities for 11 years, she taught first grade for 2 years, kindergarten for 5 years, and preschool for two years and provided early intervention with the Hartley Family Center for 10 years.

In 2001, she joined the Related Services Department and has been the Early Childhood Team Leader, and an Educational Consultant on the Outreach Resource Team. Since 2004 Carol has been involved at the local and state level to establish regional consultants (Sound START) for the Infant/Toddler networks and families who have infants or toddlers with hearing loss. Carol's retirement becomes effective at the end of this school year.
